

Julienne Gordon Low Birthplace

First National Historic Landmark in Savannah

Visit the Pioneers in Preservation:

The Andrew Low House, The Davenport House & The Julienne Gordon Low Birthplace
The houses where the preservation movement began.

- |   |                                     |   |  |   |
|---|-------------------------------------|---|--|---|
| 1. Savannah Visitors Center                   | 12. Washington Square               | 23. Independent Presbyterian Church           | 33. Whitefield, Troup, and Lafayette Squares | 43. Lutheran Church of the Ascension    |
| 2. Ships of the Sea Museum                    | 13. Reynolds Square                 | 24. Chippewa Square                           | 34. Andrew Low House                         | 44. Christ Episcopal Church             |
| 3. First African Baptist Church               | 14. Cotton Exchange                 | 25. Madison Square                            | 35. Hamilton Turner House                    | 45. King-Tisdell Foundation & Cottage   |
| 4. City Market                                | 15. U.S. Customs House              | 26. Pulaski Square                            | 36. Cathedral of St. John the Baptist        | 46. Beach Institute                     |
| 5. Factors Walk                               | 16. City Hall                       | 27. Jones Street                              | 37. Colonial Park Cemetery                   | 47. Savannah Area Chamber of Commerce   |
| 6. West End of River Street                   | 17. Johnson Square                  | 28. Monterey Square                           | 38. Oglethorpe Avenue                        | 48. Chatham County Courthouse           |
| 7. Riverfront Plaza/River Street              | 18. Wright Square                   | 29. Temple Mickve Israel                      | 39. Columbia Square                          | 49. Savannah Civic Center               |
| 8. Waving Girl Monument/1996 Olympic Monument | 19. Telfair Museum of Art           | 30. Forsyth Park                              | 40. Greene Square                            | 50. Historic Railroad Shops             |
| 9. Emmet Park                                 | 20. Trinity United Methodist Church | 31. Gaston Street                             | 41. Davenport House                          | 51. The Eugene Talmadge Memorial Bridge |
| 10. Fort Wayne                                | 21. Julienne Gordon Low Birthplace  | 32. Wesley Monumental United Methodist Church | 42. Owens-Thomas House                       |   |